MISS CONGER

Miss Juanita Conger, upon graduation from our Bible College

Twelve year old "Little Juanita," while attending the Pomona, California Foursquare Church. (Middle, back row).

Hey, she fishes too!!!

DEDICATION

The question demands a direct answer concerning a child's discipline problem.

The need demands help from someone with artistic and leadership ability.

The situation demands a person who will patiently listen while a student discusses a need or personal problem.

Whether there develops a question, need or problem, Miss Juanita Conger has consistently made herself available to L. I. F. E. students since 1962.

Miss Conger exhibits a real personal concern for L. I. F. E. students in every area where she can be of assistance. We students in turn appreciate her consistent willingness to serve us and as a measure of appreciation dedicate the 1971 CARRY-ON to her.

College Choir

COLLEGE PRESIDENT

Dr. Rolf K. McPherson

Dr. McPherson serves as president of L.I.F.E. Bible College as well as President of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. Dr. McPherson is noted for his administrative abilities and his guidance in this area has especially caused our denomination and college to be a progressive movement. The beauty of the Reality of a full Christian Life is exhibited in our president's patient and concerned nature.

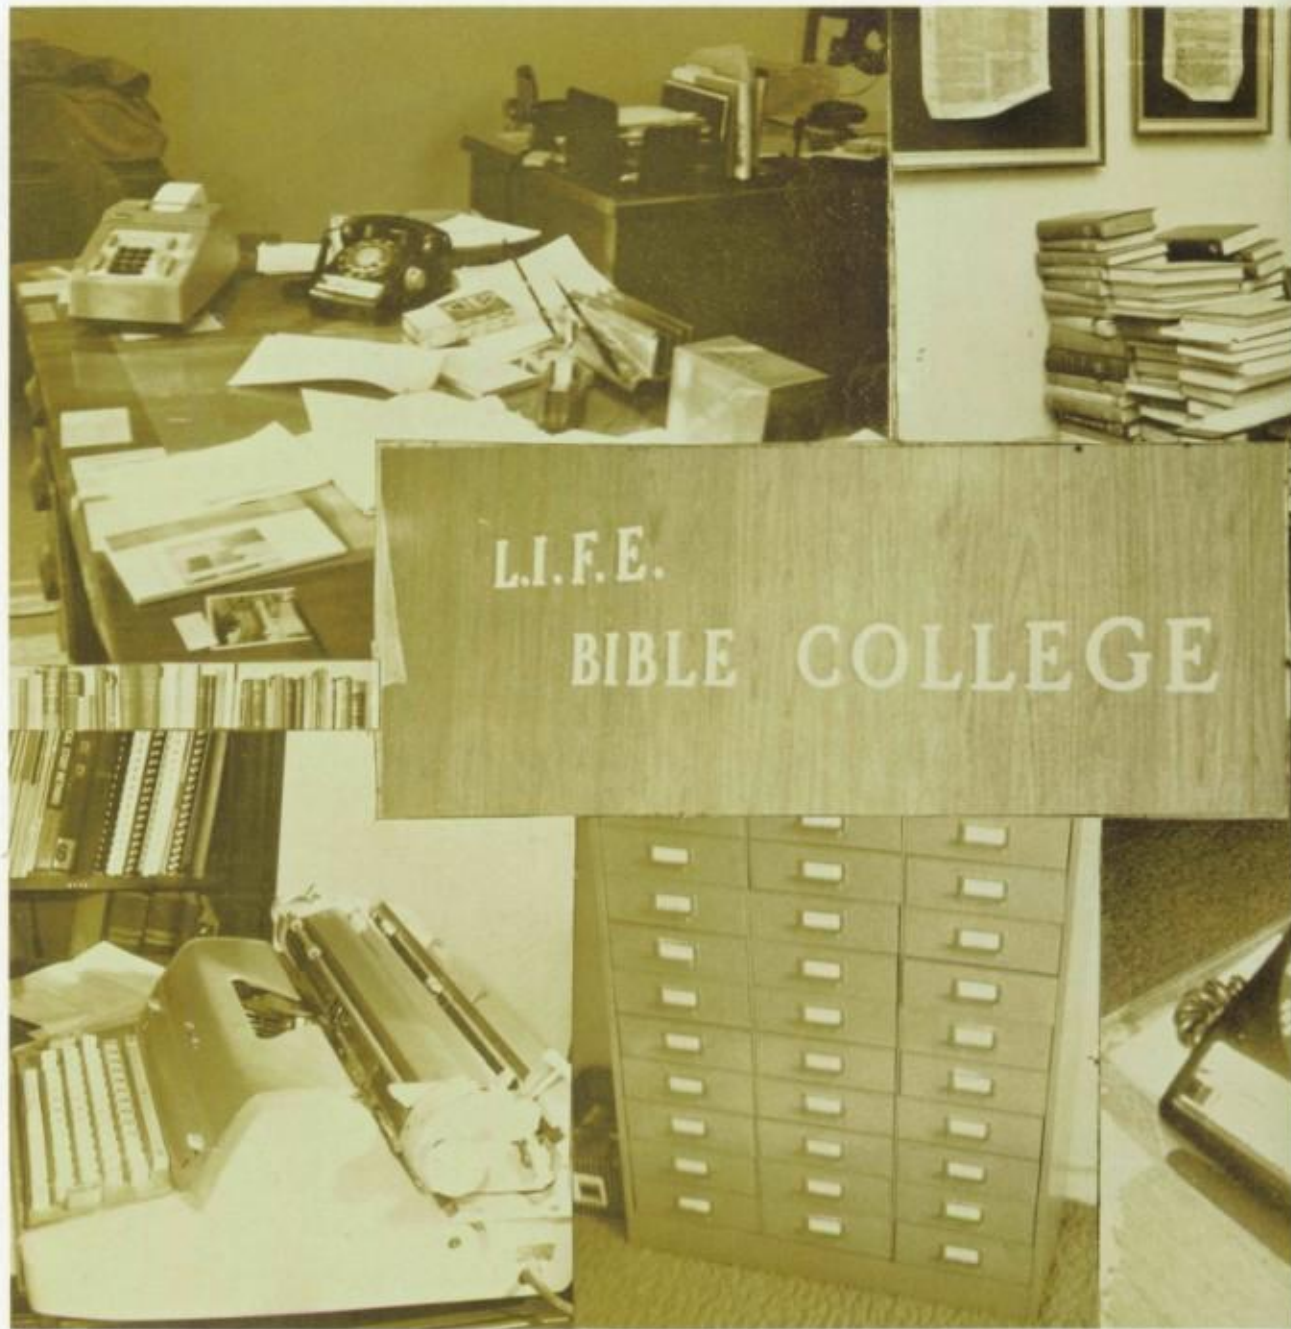

COLLEGE FOUNDER

Aimee Semple McPherson

Examples serve as profitable teachers for past, present and future generations. The life of Aimee Semple McPherson, our college founder, serves as an example reflecting the reality of a life motivated and filled by the Holy Spirit.

ADMINISTRATION & STUDENT

GOVERNMENT

Missionary Cabinet

The Missionary Cabinet is comprised of the Board of Directors, all district supervisors and three elected members, a total of 25 persons. Like many executive representatives from the International Foursquare offices, the men and women of the Missionary Cabinet are vitally interested in the progress of L.I.F.E. Bible College and vitally concerned that the gospel of Jesus Christ would be ministered to the fullest extent. The quality and Reality of a Godly Life are characteristics always evident in these representatives.

College Dean

Every part of Dr. Clarence Hall's life exhibits the Reality of LIFE

The Reality of Life

can be seen in the lives of those who lead.

Night-President

Cycling will be the subject for the fantastic new Foursquare Hour series for T.V. John Ed Cahmbers, director and star of the program, wants to call his production "Tramatic Tours Through Texas."

Outstanding lady pastor, Georgia Bishop, made quite a name for herself in the Foursquare ranks when, last week at the annual convention, she amid much turmoil addressed the convention body on the subject, "Why Foursquare Lady ministers should wear the official Pantsuit when appearing in the pulpit."

Evangelist Linda Kingston is reportedly in better condition since a rather serious fall from her perch on the light fixture at the West Hollywood Church where she was illustrating her latest sermon, "Wrapped-up, Tied-up, Tangled-up."

Rev. Bill Parks, District Supervisor for the East-West District, had to be physically removed from the monthly meeting where, when asked if he had any constructive suggestions, he burst into hysterical laughter.

and Prophecies

International extends a hearty "Thank you" to Dr. Jim Kingsbury for translating the New English Bible into Hebrew. (Well what can you expect from downtown Burbank.)

Jim hopes to use the proceeds to pay-off the outstanding debts of the Class of '71.

Day-President

Day V. Pres.

Rev. Kathy Seekamp has been appointed by the president of the Foursquare Organization to represent that group at the World Congress on Song-leading-Cheerleading Techniques. Kathy feels that her two years internship under Miss Dorothy Jean Furlong has certainly added to her footwork agility.

Day-Secretary

Noted author, Vickie Reynolds, recently released what she hopes will be a best selling book on etiquette. Miss Reynolds has donated a book to her alumni's A.W.S. with hopes that they will up-date their dress code.

Day-Treasurer

Professor Tom Dillwith has recently submitted to the International Board, for their examination, his word by word psychoanalysis of the By-laws of the Foursquare Organization.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Bishop

This has to be the right knob for focusing.

"Foursquare crusader youth are we, serving Christ in unity."

Lucy and the gang.

Castle Butte

Summer

Where is the Red Sea? Well, it's . . .

And one for you, and one for you . . .

Mexico

Beto's bunch, better known as the Mexico summer team.

SUNSHINE ACRES

TEAMS

Heavenly sunshine, heavenly sunshine . . .

Christian Service starts in the summer time for many students. Sunshine Acres, Castle Butte and Bishop Indian Reservation, also a trip into Mexico are a few of the destinations of the student teams. These students not only give their vacation to carry the gospel to these places, they pay their own way. However, when one sees the gratitude on the faces of the children, it's worth it all.

I'd like you to meet these two gentlemen.

TEAM MEMBERS: Ellis Hutchison, Steve Early, Tom Embree, Jack Rohr, Barbara Best, Janet Hansen, Donna Countryman.

Fill it up, please. And would you check the engine, it seems to be missing.

Team members show their appreciation of their fearless leader.

MacLaren Hall

MacLaren Hall is a temporary home for children from "broken" homes. It is the first of many "homes" at which the children will stay as they become wards of the court. Because of lack of funds, it perhaps leaves a little to be desired, but it is the best place that the majority of these children have ever stayed. After passing the security, the team divides into two and holds a combined Sunday School and worship service. "It's really hard to break through to these kids because they are so bitter. It's hard for them to believe, because they've never had anything to believe in," said one of the team members. For the protection of the children, their pictures were not allowed to be taken.

TEAM MEMBERS: Anthony Charles, Flane Walker, Gary Gramenz, Jerry Bellar, Rick Lund, Frank Paz, David McKeever

Marie Tremble, team leader

"Sure, I'll show the scars where my old man beat me." The statement is not uncommon at the Sargus and Malibu ranches where the Teen Challenge teams go. This is perhaps one of the bitter incidents that has happened to these boys. The ranches are for juvenile delinquents. The younger boys are love-starved, and open to the team members. The older ones are often hardened and cold. The Life team joins the Teen Challenge team to minister to these boys on Sunday mornings. They minister to the boys from the Word, in music and in songs.

Pictures may not be taken of the boy's faces. It is for their own protection in later life.

Teen Challenge

Anthony always did enjoy being the center of attention.

In spite of the early start, the whole team is wide awake.

The fall team leader, Anita, and the spring team leader, Diane.

Pico Gardens is a very successful sidewalk Sunday School. Miss La Belle has been conducting this school for approximately fifteen years. The Sunday morning starts with visiting the apartments to remind the children that it is time for Sunday School. After taking the chairs from the storage closets, the children gather around a special box. It is full of toys. Miss La Belle rings the bell and all gather together for opening exercise. The children then pick up their chairs and follow their teacher. The classroom might only be the shade of a tree, if it is even that.

That's right children, play fair.

It's certainly wonderful to have a cheerful class.

It may be outside, but it's still upsetting to be interrupted.

The pause that refreshes.

If you can just grasp this one point.

PECAN RECREATION

Team leaders teach, too.

World Opportunities, a non-profit organization, makes available the facilities at Pecan Recreation Center on Saturday mornings for L.I.F.E. student teams. A team of students travel in groups of two throughout the housing projects inviting children to the recreation time.

After playing a while, small groups form and Bible lessons are taught. Then the fun begins! Crafts, glue, crayolas, scissors and paper are everywhere. The morning ends with tired teachers escorting home happy children with various "whatchamacallits" dangling from their limbs and glue on their faces.

The aim is to get down where the kids are.

Sharing one's self, and a puppy.

Alanna

Waiting in eager anticipation to participate . .

SUNSHINE MISSION

O. K. girls, it's gather-around-the-piano time.

Sunshine Mission is a home for women with problems. Walking into the quaint chapel, one senses the attitude of worship mingled with a pinch of desperation. The students on the two teams alternate in taking the service. The team members give up their Saturday night activities to minister to these women. The team conducts an entire service complete with an upperclassman to preach.

Howdy, so glad you could be here.

This is what it's really all about.

A welcoming committee of one.

Good News Mission is located in downtown Los Angeles, on skid row. The drunkard, the bum, and the broken, stagger in to sit in the rickety chairs. The men listen as the Scriptures are read, the songs are sung and the message is preached. Then the men are escorted back to the kitchen to enjoy a good solid meal.

As the music section warms up . . .

MALAKIANS

Malakians means "messengers of Jehovah." The team works together to bring Jehovah's message to the people. As they sing such songs as "We've Come This Far by Faith" and "How Sweet It Is to Know the Lord," they magnify Christ and minister to the people.

Team in action.

"Yes Jesus is the Answer Today" is the theme song of the Heirs In Service team. The goal of the team is to tell others that Jesus is the answer. The service begins with a discussion in Crusaders of the "end days." Singing, praying, testifying, ministering, and preaching are all a part of the team's program.
"According as He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame, in love:" Ephesians 1:4

HEIRS IN SERVICE

Claude Fry, Steve Bailey, Dave McKeever

This trio has its own special kind of "picking and grinning." The difference between this trio and other country and western singers is that they sing for the glory of God. These three conduct the evening service in various churches with song, testimonies, and sermons.

"Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Mark 16:15

Sue,
This has been a

know the Lord has lots in store
I hope all the Best for Open your mouth wide and say "AH." Vikki Crowder, Ginny Lee, Janice Penwell and Carol, the pianist.

The girls' faithful practice and prayer has led to a trio, small but powerful, the effective ministry through song is complemented with a sermon by one of the Bible College teachers. Sunday night services with a message for today in song is the goal. One sometimes wonders how four small girls could attain such volume.

"Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us." Ephesians 3:20

Howdy ya'll.

Betty Jayne Carroll

Singing their way into the heart of many congregations, these individuals spread the gospel of God. Walking from the pastor's study to the pulpit can be very long, but the courage asked for in the study soon undertakes in the pulpit. The songs become bolder, the testimonies uplifting and God is glorified. "I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise unto my God while I have my being." Psalms 104:33

Bob Mark, Bob Snook, Anita Anaya, Vikki Crowder, Sherri Simmons, Debby Shivers, Joseph Arquietta.

The Release Time Team works with school children on week-day afternoons. Picking the kids up from school, the team members take them to church or home nearby to teach them songs, verses and a lesson. These children are hungry for the Word. They are there because they choose to be. It is a great challenge to serve on this team with and for those children.

"But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven." Matt. 19:14

OUTSTANDING CHRISTIAN SERVICE

With so many diligent workers, it is very difficult to make the final decision of one person having the outstanding Christian Service record. These people have had excellent records for the last four years in school. They have done an outstanding job in a variety of fields. They are indeed workmen that needeth not to be ashamed. Our recognition means but little in comparison to the "well done, thou good and faithful servant" from our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ronald Neumann

Helpers are necessary for all offices and especially for the busy Christian Service office. The workers sympathetically listen to all problems, aid in filling out the various necessary forms, and of course, set up appointments to visit Miss Furlong.
 "And whatsoever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men:"

Jeanne Binkley, Jeanie Hendon, Cheryl Everett

When I grow up I'm gonna be a minister.

A slow smile and bright red hair are two of the most noticeable characteristics of Sam Jamison. Perhaps one that is not as noticeable, but just as real, is his burden for lost souls.

Not just his Senior year as Director of Evangelism at Angelus Temple, but all through his four years at LIFE, he has been faithful in his Christian Service, even so faithful as to turn in those little reports weekly.

The variety of his Christian Service has well prepared him for a ministry in serving Christ. Something that is never shown on a Christian Service report is the many times Sam has sat patiently and sympathetically listening to a fellow student, helping him through the crisis. In acknowledging his outstanding Christian Service, we are showing what the Reality of Life can be.

Honored Senior

Sue,

I sure do like this page. It's the neatest one in the whole book. Oh, but I suppose I'm just prejudiced! Words can never tell how much you have meant to me, you are a friend in the truest sense of the word. (I'm sure you will be able to prove that even more in the future!!) I really love and appreciate you. Remember all the long talks (!?) And good times (the brown door for instance!) I love blues & rock.

Love, John

FALL SHARON NOLAN

Early Monday morning a team leader comes into the Christian Service office looking for Sharon Nolan. "Three of my team members didn't show and two of them that did come, weren't ready to teach their lesson." First soothing overwrought emotions, Sharon then guides them to business. Pulling the team folder from her desk drawer she begins to talk of the current problem. She is the reliable person that keeps the team working together smoothly.

"A Merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance." Proverbs 15:13

SPRING KATHY SEEKAMP

A new job, excellently done. Kathy Seekamp has recently started to work in the Christian Service Office. She is now the person with all of the answers for all of the team leaders and restless team members.

Her's is the job to coordinate teams, solve impossible problems and smooth in compatible team members into a working team. "What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?" Romans 8:31

So you want to change your Christian Service?

Those students entering L.I.F.E. Bible College have a unique experience of meeting one of the most fantastic ladies one will ever meet. Some meet her sooner than others, but eventually all have the privilege of hearing her say, "Now about your Christian Service..." Those with selfcontrol in study habits are indeed blessed, but those less fortunate will soon obtain some degree of control through consistent Christian service assignments and reports.

Miss Furlong becomes the guiding light of many. "Foolishness is bound in the the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him." Proverbs 22:15 The correction is there, but the love guiding it is much greater.

ASB RETREAT

Concluding a summer filled with varied activities, the L.I.F.E. student body gathered for a week-end of fellowship at Camp Cedar Crest in the San Bernardino, California mountains.

The students who attended this event will recall the joy of seeing fellow classmates and meeting new friends.

The Reality of God's nearness, the beauty of sharing testimonies and truths gleaned from the faculty all added to the beginning of a new college year.

Freshman Initiation

What kind of legs contest did you say that was?

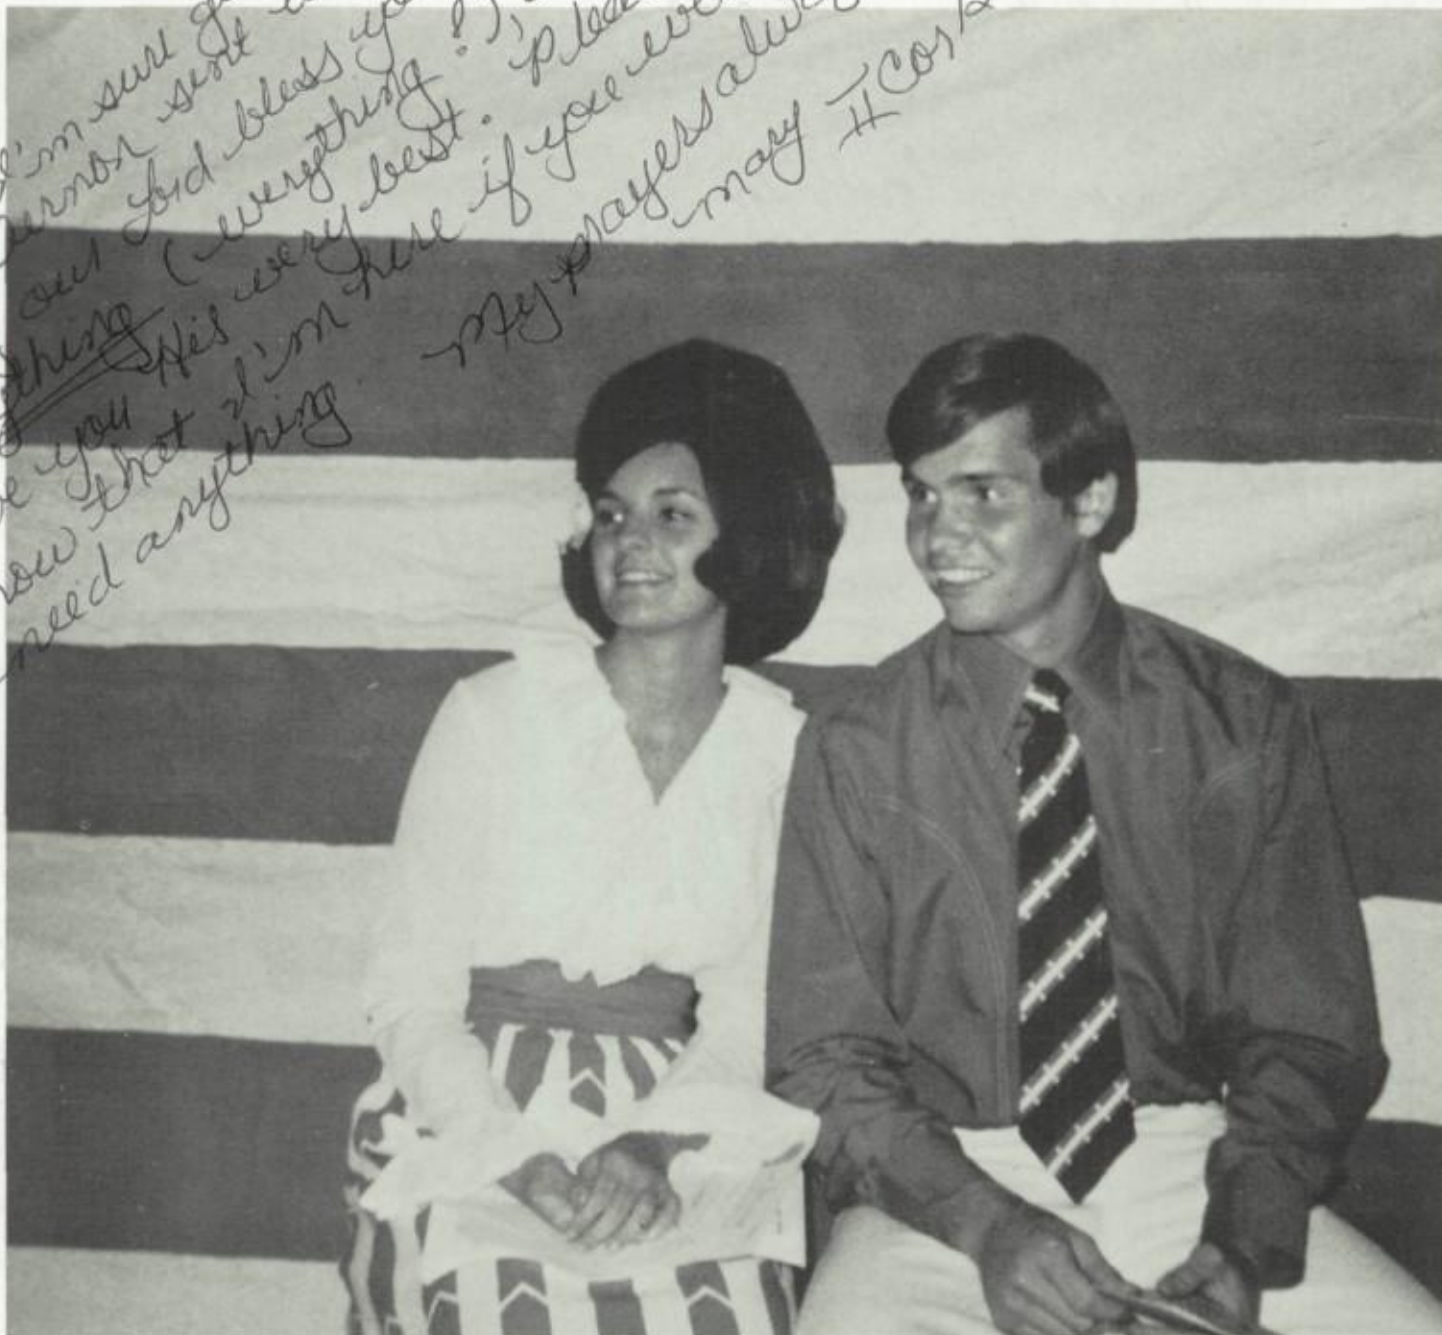

Is your burden heavy — Do you bear it all alone . . . ?

The freshmen anticipate initiation as a disaster while the upperclassmen look forward to it as a time of getting to know the freshmen. At the beginning of every fall semester the incoming freshmen go through initiation. This usually takes place on the roof for one fun-filled week. At the end of the week the freshmen are officially regarded as part of the student body.

On your mark, get set, go!

Gary Gramenz decides that the food in Vickie Reynolds plate must taste better than his own, at the Harvestime Banquet.

Inspirational music, such as offered by the Walter Arties Chorale, causes Christian believers to better enjoy The Reality of Life as God's Children.

DIRECTOR OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES

CHUCK SHOEMAKE

Chuck planning one of several evangelistic outreaches.

Chuck Shoemake serves our college as faculty instructor and Director of Student Activities. Either of these tasks could be classified as demanding full-time attention, yet Chuck singularly fulfills both positions.

Throughout the college year numerous and varied activities are conducted under the leadership of Chuck. Along with college activities this year, he coordinated the evangelistic out-reach which involved some 1,100 youth during the Annual Foursquare Congress On Evangelism. Also Chuck serves as assistant pastor of the entire student body, we thank you, Chuck, for your dedication to our College and to our Lord.

Chuck and his wife, Ruby, discuss plans for the next evangelistic outreach.

College Choir

In preparation for the actual recording of the college choir album the choir members attended many early morning rehearsals.

"SINGING WE GO" is the choir's first album, and the product of many hours of dedicated practice. John Wold, the "father" of the big choir family, is greatly appreciated by all the students for his time and dedication. He has worked hard to develop our fine choir. The Lord has richly blessed him for his effort.

The choir intently listens to a playback of their tape.

See I want to take this opportunity to thank you for helping me get over my jealous streak. I'll admit that you were the last person in the world I wanted to associate with, because of Al. I liked him so much, to the point of praying and persuading him. But I was really convinced about my feelings towards you. Anyway, Christ has changed me. I still like Al, but it's his choice. If you are in the Lord's will, congratulations. I wasn't. I love you in the Lord, Sue and whatever happens, I'll be praying for the best. If you need any advice, or anything, I call 742-6296. VICKIE REYNOLDS

Thank you Stabb for your diligent work - Congratulations fellow grads
 Vickie

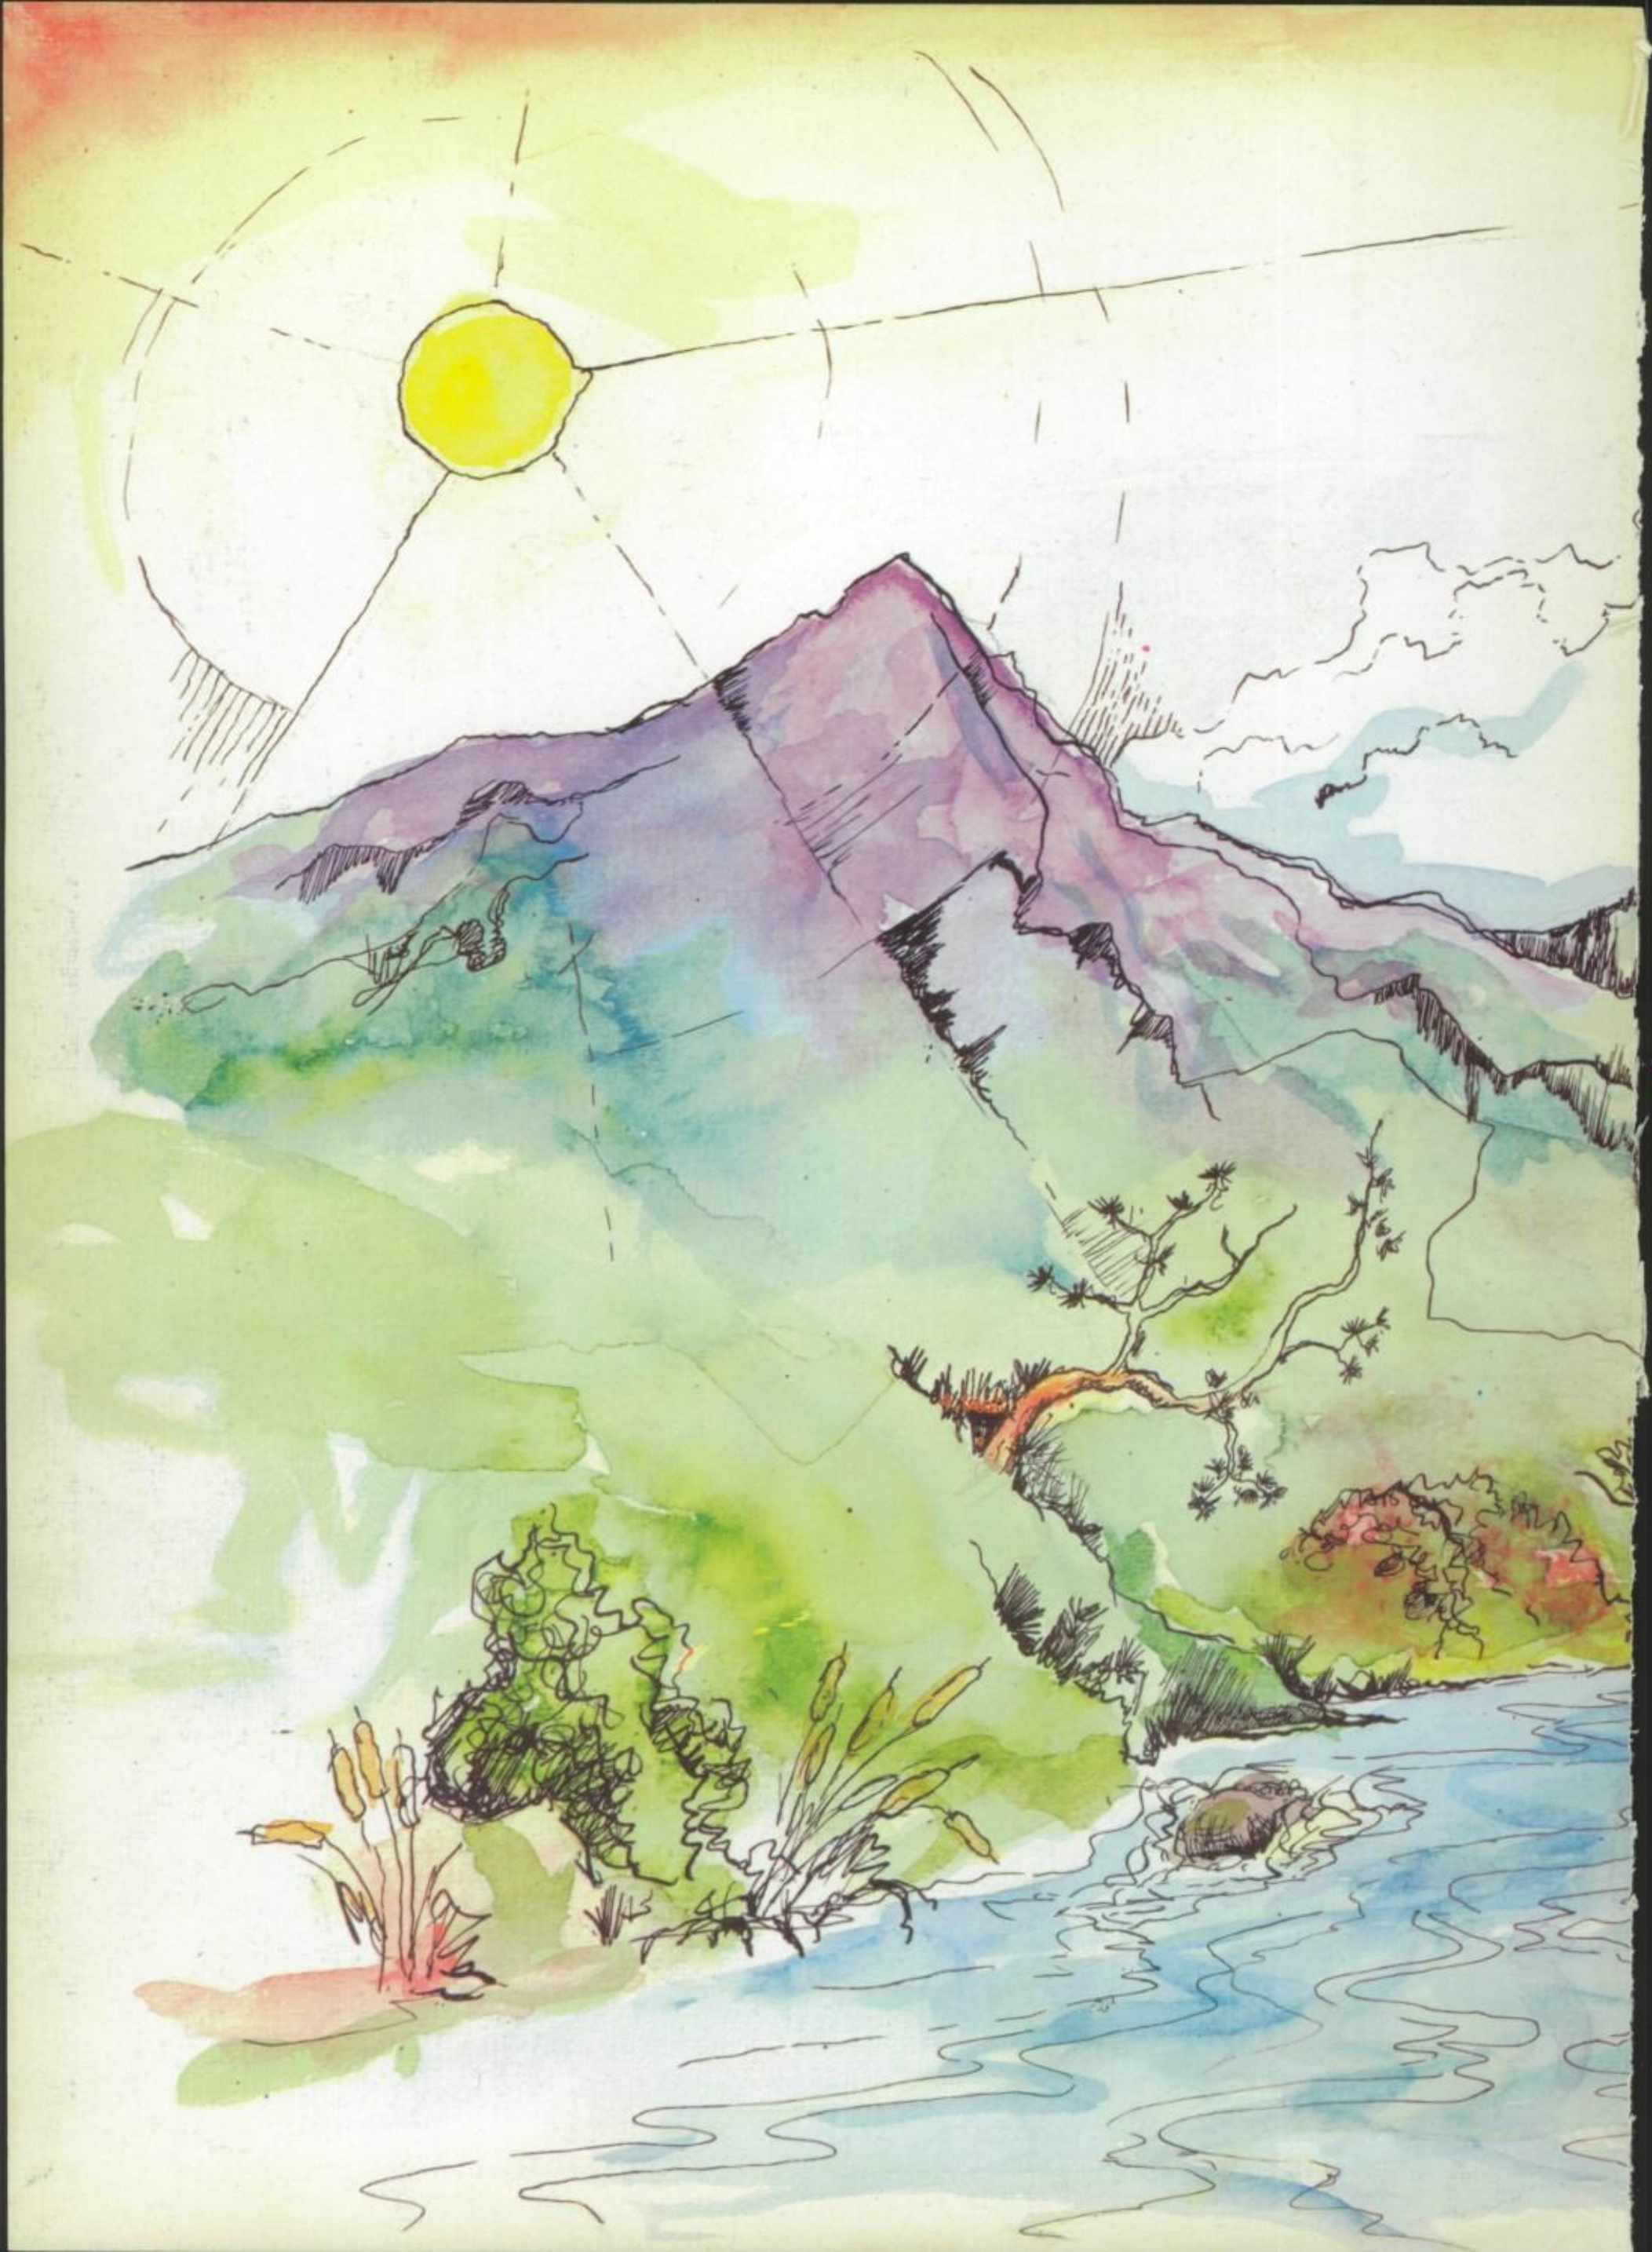

When writing concerning the frustrations of life,
 T. S. Elliott stated:

Our dried voices when
 We whisper together,
 Are quiet and meaningless
 As wind in dry grass
 Or rats feet over broken glass
 In our dry cellar
 Shape without form, shade without color,
 Paralysed force,
 Gesture without motion.

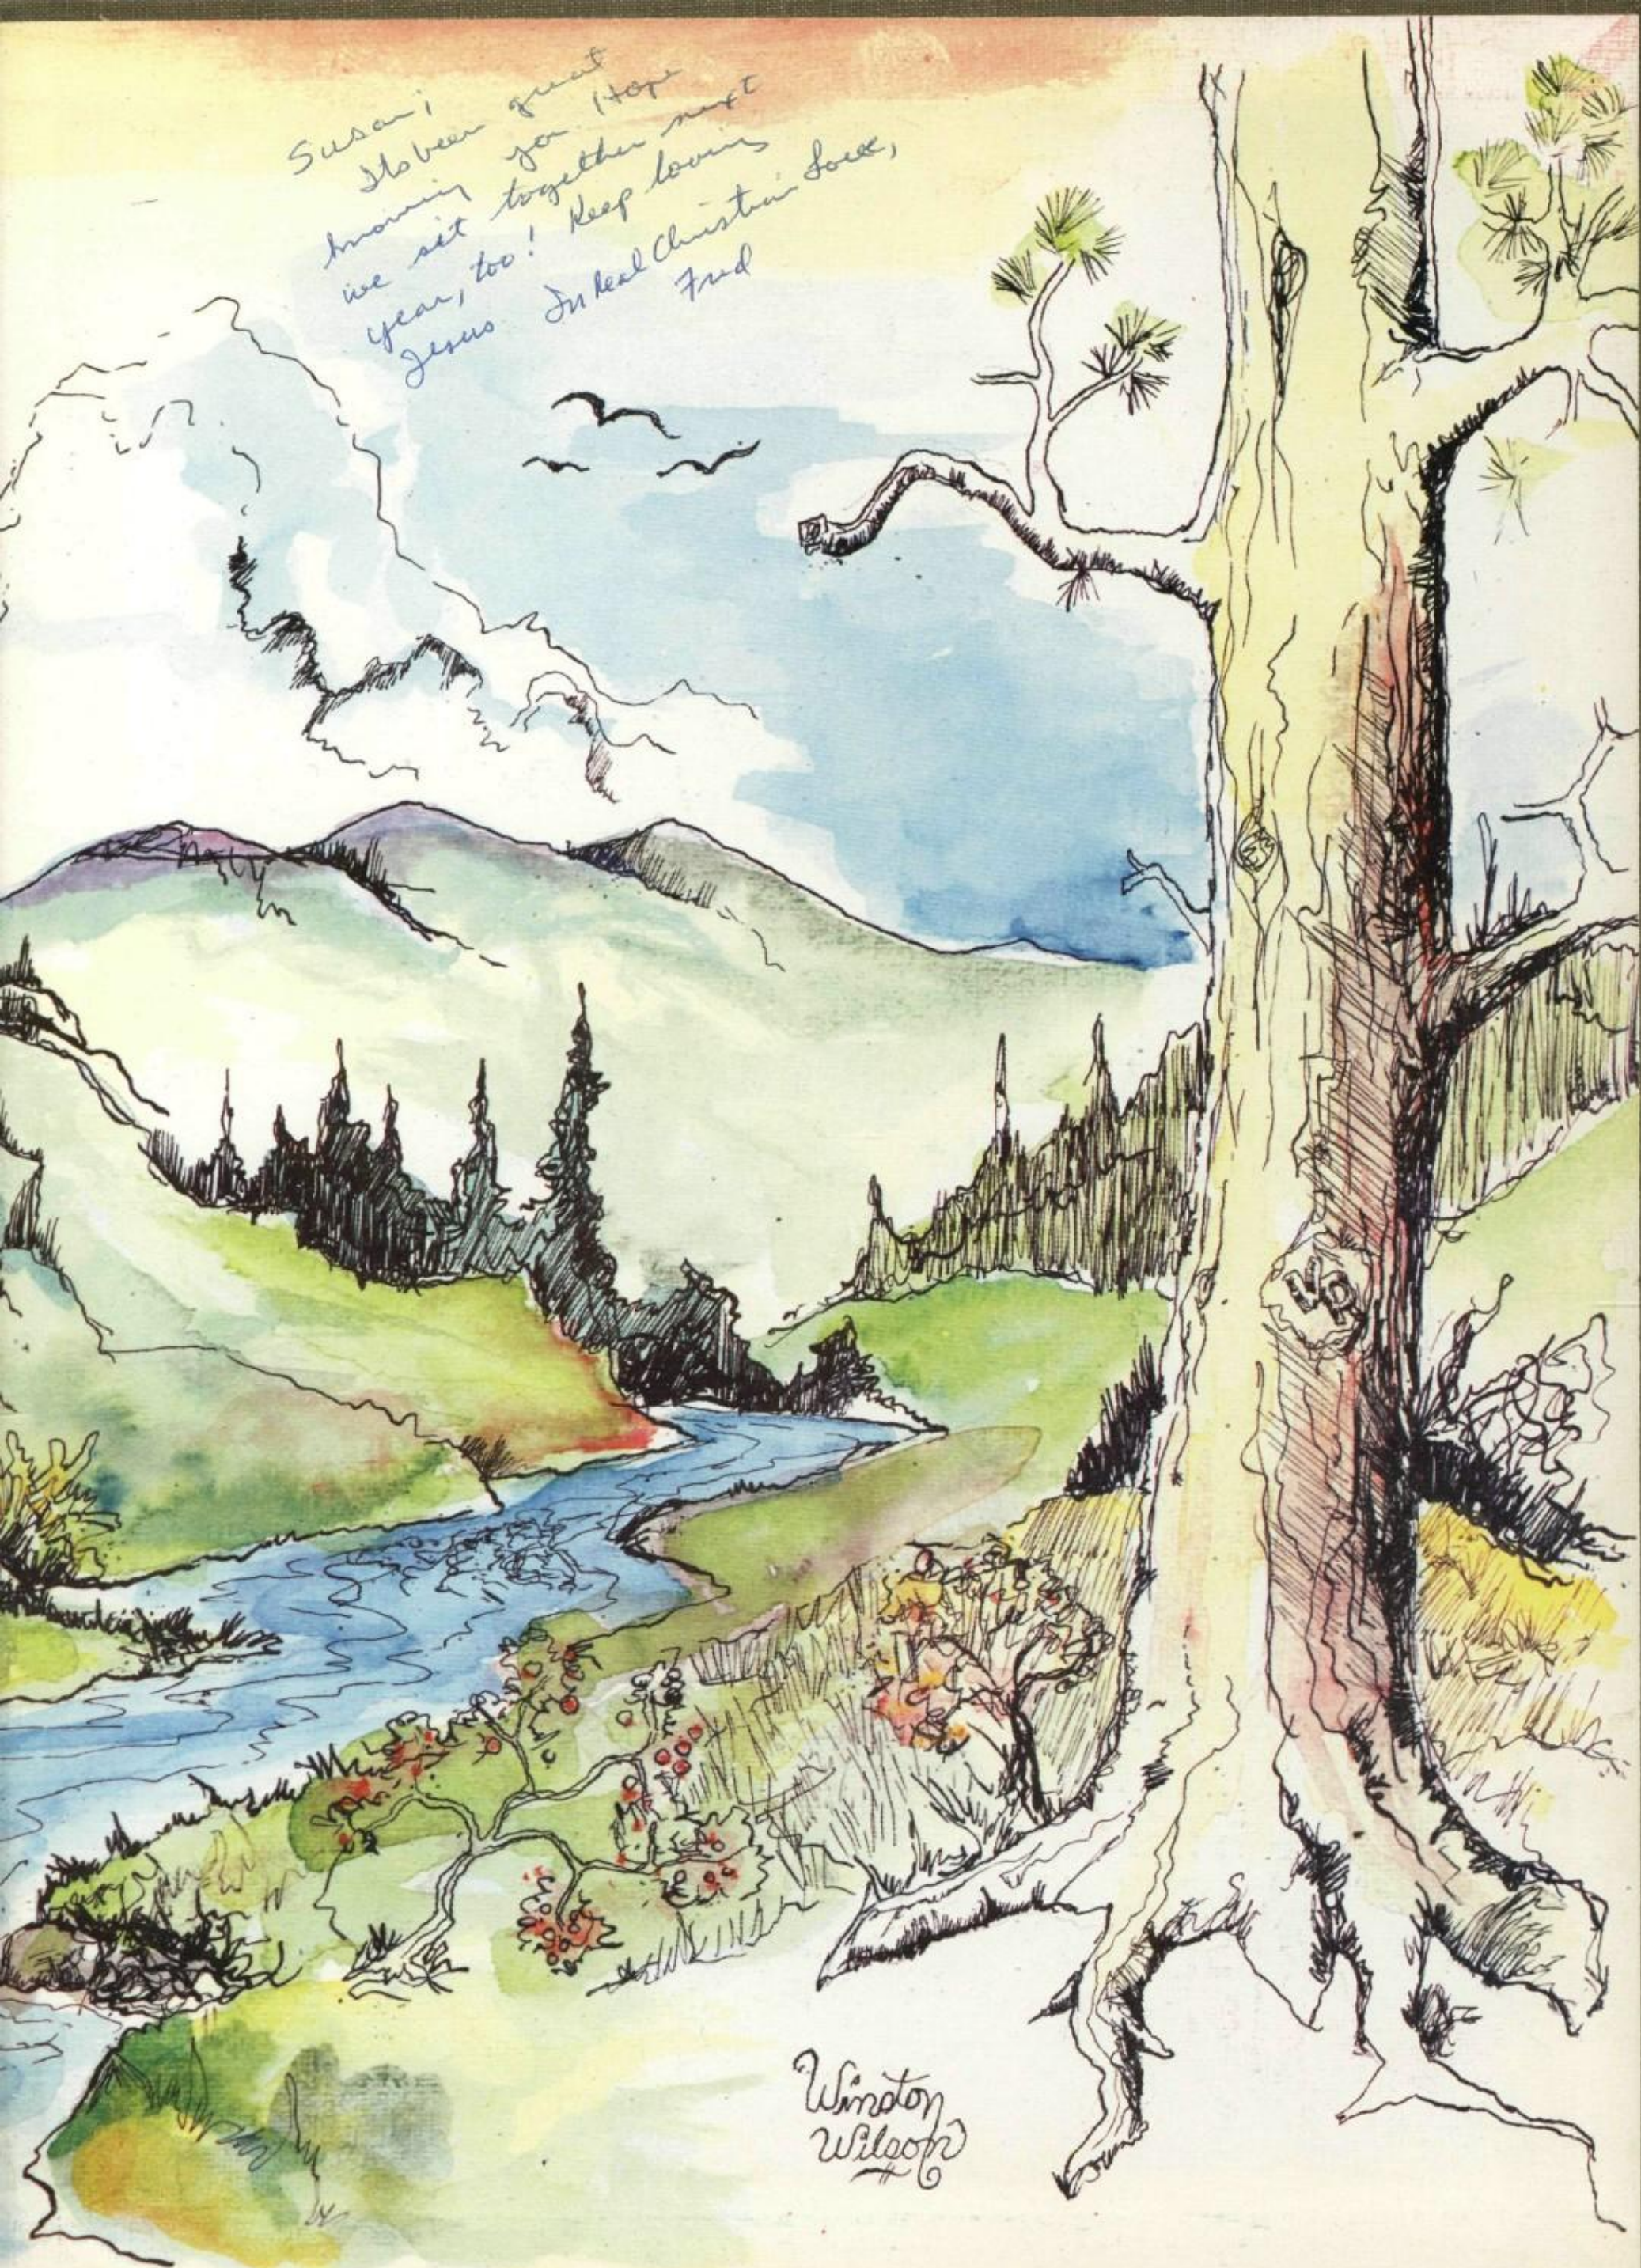

So graphically does Elliott describe the hollow existence of those outside the true Reality of Life found only in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

Thankfully, our college instructors continually proclaim Jesus as Lord and the only way to find the Reality of Life. May we as students learn the truths of the Word and through His power fill the existence of the hollow men.

Susan,
It's been a great morning for hope
we sit together next year, too! Keep loving
Jesus In real Christian love,
Fred
